Evidence was taken pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 43(e), as incorporated by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9017 and as invoked by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014(e).

Findings of Fact

On April 4, 2005, debtors filed a motion, notice, and certificate of service requesting that this court avoid a judgment lien in favor of Bank of America, N.A. The lien attaches to the debtors' residence commonly known as 988 Bella Vista Avenue, Paradise, California, ("the property"). A hearing was scheduled for May 3, 2005 to consider the motion. Upon review of the record, the court determined that the written record was adequate and that no oral argument was necessary.

In reviewing debtors' certificate of service, the court observes that debtor served Bank of America, N.A. at the following two addresses: Eskanos & Adler, 2325 Clayton Road, Concord, CA 94520 and Bank of America, P.O. Box 53132, Phoenix, AZ 85072.

Conclusions of Law

Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7004(b)(3) provides in pertinent part:

Except as provided in subdivision(h), in addition-to the methods of service authorized by Rule 4(e)-(j) F.R.Civ.P., service may be made within the United States by first class postage prepaid as follows... Upon a domestic or foreign corporation or upon a partnership or other unincorporated association, by mailing a copy of the summons and complaint to the attention of an officer, a managing or general agent, or to any other agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process and, if the agent is one authorized by statute to receive service and the statute so requires, by also mailing a copy of the defendant.

Fed. R. Bank. P. 7004(b)(3).

2 Here, debtors' service of motion does not comply with
3 the requirement to serve the motion to the attention of an
4 officer or other agent authorized as provided in Rule
5 7004(b)(3). Beneficial California, Inc. v. Villar (In re
6 Villar), 317 B.R. 88, 93 (9th Cir. BAP 2004). The court
7 notes that a corporation's agent for service of process may
8 be obtained by visiting the California Secretary of State
9 website at www.ss.ca.gov. The website contains a link to 10 the "California Business Portal" which provides an online
11 service titled "California Business Search." Therein,
12 corporation information, including the agent for service of 13 process, may be obtained by entering the corporation's name
14 in the search engine.

15 The motion will therefore be denied without prejudice.
16 An appropriate order will issue.
